

The Confluence Heritage Society:

“Preserving, supporting and promoting our Western Canadian history, heritage and culture.”

A part of the community for over 30 years. We are a non profit, volunteer organization that offers fun, educational and inspiring programs and events at the Rocky Mountain House National Historic Site and beyond.

What we do at the Historic Site:

- Operate the Trading Post Gift Shop
- Provide educational summer day camps for youth
- Provide summer employment for students
- Provide volunteer opportunities to all ages
- Perform the renowned David Thompson Puppet Show daily
- Welcome and provide site orientation for visitors from all over the world
- Maintain a historical vegetable garden

Special Events:

- Art Workshops
- Historical Wine Tasting and Bison Dinner
- Fur Trade Christmas
- Riverbank Erosion Prevention
- Snowshoeing
- Special Guests
- Fright Night At The Site
- High Water House
- Interactive Visitor Opportunities
- Bilingual Summer Day Camp
- David Thompson Puppet Show
- And more

All sponsors will be recognized publically in many fashions unless stated that they would rather not.
