Preserving, supporting and promoting our Western Canadian history, heritage and culture

Are you a member?

Do you want FREE entry to RMH National Historic Site all year?

Get your membership with the Confluence Heritage Society and you'll be supporting a local non-profit that has been a part of the community for over 30 years! Receive 10% off at the Trading Post gift shop, excluding sale items, and receive two annual newsletters where you'll hear about member exclusive contests and deals.

Membership with the Confluence Heritage Society grants you free entry to all events at Rocky Mountain House during the regular operating season. Some events include Legends and Legacies and Bastions ad Bones, and you can come visit daily for free with your entry pass, including access to the Brierley Rapids canoe launch.

As a member you'll be able to purchase advance tickets to Fright Night at the Site for 10$- one per person limit and must be purchased at the Trading Post.

You'll also be open to offers from businesses around town when you show your membership card.
